HEEF is a fund of the Orange County Community Foundation and a fiscally sponsored project of Charitable Ventures. OCCF and Charitable Ventures are both independent 501(c)(3) charitable organizations. Donations are tax deductible as allowed by law.

HEEF's mission is to provide academic scholarships to talented and deserving Hispanic students in Orange County in an effort to inspire, enhance, and improve access to higher education.

ABOUT HEEF

Founded in 1993, The Orange County Hispanic Education Endowment Fund (HEEF) serves students who live in Orange County, California. The HEEF Scholarship Program offers competitive academic scholarships for high school graduates, community college transfer students, and college graduates heading to Law School who are part of the first generation in their families to attend college. HEEF is a collaborative of more than 30 funding partners that offer individual awards of $2,500 - $5,000 across multiple areas of interest.
